Make Plans Now to Attend
the Sagamore Council Spring Camporee!

Help us celebrate 100 years of Scouting in Indiana, 1911 – 2011. April 15 – 17, 2011 at the Miami County 4-H Fairgrounds, just off Highway 24 north of Peru, IN on Mexico Road (Business 31) and County Road 200 North.

If you want to learn about Native American Indian Lore, you don't want to miss this. Miami Nation of Indians will be presenting a drum circle, teaching handicrafts, and presenting storytelling at the campfire. There will also be old-school throwback Scouting activities, flint knapping demonstration, Brownsea Island games, and a disabilities awareness course. The Miami County Sheriff's Department will be presenting Drug & Alcohol Awareness. Expect to see some special guests, a ham radio fest, and a Saturday night campfire. The campout is also open to Webelos, but not for the younger Cub Scouts.

Cost is $12 Scouts/$6 Adults if registered with Council by March 25; $15 Scouts/$8 Adults after March 25th. There will be a nominal extra cost for the handicrafts that you choose to make.

Invite your parents, grandparents, neighbors and friends who are "retired" Scouts and Scouters to attend with us. We will have a "meet and greet" for our Scout leaders from years past to honor them for their service and to share some stories of Scouting in the old days. For more information, contact your Dist. Exec. or Stu Sullivan, 765-985-9248.

What's New: Honors Program

Guess how many different awards Scouting offers. Do you have a guess? Well, when you add up all the awards – Silver Beaver, Arrow of Light, Totin' Chip, interpreter strips, 50-Miler Award, and more—the answer is...114!

That's a lot of honors to keep up with, and that's why there's a new, interactive scouting.org site called Awards Central. The site, which replaces the Insignia Guide, will serve as a clearinghouse of info about all the awards, including descriptions, links to the nomination or application process, approving authority, and deadlines.

The BSA's youth development team believes the new site will save councils a lot of time by making all the recognition info easy to attain electronically. Awards Central can be updated quickly when award details change—for instance, when the 115th award is added. Look for Awards Central to go live in May.
